525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles further to Evans Pass the highest point on the road by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second lien as security and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and as there will be no competition it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is in fact a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present at 95 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, IN U. S. CURRENCY, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay

General Emory's Testimony before the Impeachment Committee

The following is General Emory's testimony relative to the interview with the President on the 22d of February:

The President asked me if I recollected the conversation I had with him when I first took command of the department in reference to the strength of the garrison of Washington and the general disposition of the troops in this department, to which I replied that I did not recollect it distinctly. He asked me if there had been any changes. I replied that there had been no material changes, but such as there had been I could state at once. I then went on to state that six companies of the Twenty-ninth Infantry had been brought here to winter, but that had been offset by detaching four companies of the Twelfth Infantry to Charleston on a requisition from General Canby that two companies of the Fourteenth Artillery which had been detached during General Canby's command of the department, one from the Southern frontier to assist in preventing Fenian difficulties, had been returned to the regiment stationed at Fort McHenry, Baltimore; that though the command had been increased in the number of companies, I was under the impression that the reduction in the numerical strength of the command growing out of the order which reduced the infantry and artillery companies from the maximum of the war establishment to the minimum of the peace establishment was more than offset by the gain of additional companies.

The President said: "I refer to more recent changes."

I said I did not know exactly what he meant by recent changes; that they had not been made to my knowledge; that if he would give me some idea of who had made the report to him or what the report was which he had received I could perhaps give him a more definite answer.

He said reports had reached him that within the last day or two certain new arrangements of troops had been made.

I assured him none had been made with my knowledge and I did not believe any had been made without it. That under recent orders, founded upon the laws of Congress, for government of the armies of the United States approved by him no order could come to me except through General Grant, and that reasoning from analogy it was assumed in the army that if an order could be given to any one under my command without coming through me that if by any possibility an order had been given without coming through me it was the duty of the officer receiving it to notify me.

He then asked me, What order do you refer to?

I stated that I referred to Order No. 15 or 17, I could not recollect which, that had been published to the army some time in May last.

He said: "I wish to see the order."

I replied that I would send for it.

He said: "No. I have all the orders about the house," and a messenger was sent for it. At that Col. Cooper came in and occupied the President's attention for some time upon another subject, as I supposed, for I withdrew to the other end of the room. When the messenger came and brought the order, after Colonel Cooper had gone out, I turned to the President with this order in my hand and said: "Mr. President, I will take it as a great favor if you will permit me to call your attention to this order or act. It passed in an appropriation bill and it is possible you may never have seen it."

He took the order and read it, and observed: "This is not in accordance with the constitution of the United States, which makes me the Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy, nor with the language of the commission which you hold."

I stated to him that that was not a matter for officers to determine. It was an order sent to us approved by him and we were all governed by that order.

Question. Do you mean the order or act was approved by the President?

Answer. I mean the act, but as far as that was concerned the order and act approved by him are the same thing, for the order contained nothing but the act.

He said: "Am I to understand that the President of the United States cannot give an order but through the General in Chief or General Grant?"

I replied: "Mr. President, that is the order which you approved, and which has been issued for the government of the army, and I think it due to you to say that when this order first came out it was very much discussed in the army, and some leading lawyers in the country were consulted as to what the duty of an officer would be under that law and order," and I observed: "I consulted one and I consider him perhaps one of the greatest constitutional lawyers in the country and he gave it as his very decided opinion that we were bound by it, and I think it right to tell you that on this subject the army is a unit."

He asked me who the lawyer was.

I told him the one I consulted was a kinsman of mine—Robert J. Walker—and I had understood, though I did not know of my own knowledge, that others had consulted Reverdy Johnson, who, it was reported, held the same opinion.

The President replied: "The object of the law is very evident."

After a short pause, seeing there was nothing more to say, I thanked him for the courtesy with which he had permitted me to express my opinion and left the house.

Question. Did the President in any form, inquire whether you would obey an order if sent to you without going through the headquarters of the General?

Answer. As nearly as I can recollect there was not a word said that I have not put down, though I could, of course, not swear that I had put down every word uttered. You may see by my testimony that I myself introduced the subject of Order No. 17 which involves the question. There were a variety of rumors running about town that General Thomas had given orders or had declared that he was was going to give orders. I thought it my duty to state the situation fairly and squarely to the President.

THE DEBATE ON THE IMPEACHMENT ARTICLES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—About forty members have entered their names with the Speaker as candidates for the floor on the discussion of the impeachment articles. The debate will accordingly occupy ten hours, each speaker limited by the rule to fifteen minutes. There will be a session to-night for debate, the vote on the articles being fixed for Monday at 4 o'clock.

A TUNNEL UNDER THE NIAGARA RIVER.—We understand that the project of tunneling the Niagara river as proposed by that practical engineer William Wallace in the year 1842 and so strongly urged upon the consideration of the Common Council of Buffalo in the year 1865 by [illegible], Mayor of Buffalo, has been revived and is in the hands of capitalists and practical men both in Canada and in this State and is likely to result in the construction thereby [illegible] a free and uninterrupted railroad connection between this city and Chicago, Canada. When this project was first started and urgently recommended by citizens who had the interest of the city at heart it was frustrated by a counter project to erect an international bridge at Buffalo. The place selected for a tunnel under the Niagara river is the shortest crossing between Fort Erie and the American side. The river at this point flows over a bed of solid limestone rock and is twenty-four feet deep at the proposed site. These facts are eminently favorable to the process of tunneling, avoiding heavy expense of deep excavation and heavy grades to and from the tunnel. The cost of this work [illegible] as estimated by the cost of similar works. [illegible] all waters [illegible] difference in cost of material and labor between the two countries will be it is said, for less than the estimated cost of a bridge at the same location.—[illegible]

The Democrats have been insisting with [illegible] apparent earnestness [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] that [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] use it will lessen the grade of their own sort. If expenses are to be reduced it cannot all be accomplished with the rank and file. Some of the Generals must go lower. Why not?

Dr. Livingstone

PARTICULARS OF THE SEARCHING EXPEDITION—LIVINGSTONE SAFE

[From the Cape Argus.]

Yesterday evening Capt. Faulkner, who it will be remembered proceeded with Capt. Young as a volunteer in the Livingstone searching expedition, arrived in Cape Town and has obligingly furnished us with the following interesting particulars of the successful search after the traces of the distinguished explorer. It will be in the recollection of our readers that the expedition left Simon's Bay in [illegible] of July and that in Dr. Kirk's account of the circumstances connected with the reported death of Dr. Livingstone it was said that the latter having crossed the north lake named Makara and consequently Matarka [illegible] Marenga's [illegible]. The searching party having reached Nyassa, where driven by a gale into a small bay, where they found a native who reported to them that a white man about eight or ten months previously had been there. Capt. Faulkner and the rest of the expedition feared at first that the news was too good to be true and it was resolved to endeavor to reach a point higher up at which there was an Arab crossing place near Momba, a point about twenty miles from the spot at which the boat was anchored. In carrying this intention into effect, they fell in with a large party of native fishermen, and on communication with them received a similar account to that which had been previously given them. These people described the dress of the white man which tallied pretty closely with that of Dr. Livingstone. These men having been shown some surveying instruments appeared to recognize and to understand the use of them. One of them produced a spoon and also only a knife which they had received as presents from Dr. Livingstone. As a further test Capt. Faulkner exhibited a case of photographs and without any hesitation that of Dr. Livingstone was recognized as the picture of the white man. This gave the searching party more confidence and they proceeded on to the crossing place.

On arriving there the same story was repeated with the addition that the white man had endeavored to cross the lake, but finding all the boats were on the opposite side he went toward the south and passed through the villages already named. The searching party then sailed across the lake but obtaining no information, made for the south. They shortly afterwards came across a large village and here the same story was repeated. It is known that Marenga, the chief of the village of that name, was extremely civil to Livingstone and so he was found to be to those in search of him. It appears that he had ferried Dr. Livingstone across a lake forming an indentation in the banks of the Nyassa, which he might have circled on foot at the cost of a detour. Marenga gave the searching party every information in his possession and presented them with a very acceptable supply of fresh provisions. It will be remembered that it was at this point that the Johanna men abandoned Livingstone. While Livingstone went across the marsh the natives skirted the margin and on returning to the village reported they were being led into a hostile country, and at once made their way for the sea board. The last place named by Dr. Kirk, Matsowa, was two days journey from Marenga. The chief of this village had been driven away but a number of his men were collected who had been employed to convey the baggage of Dr. Livingstone twenty miles further in a northwesterly direction. Both Captain Faulkner and Mr. Young regarded the information as conclusive, but with a view of discovering Maponda's settlement, they proceeded on a little further.

The village was found about a mile from the mouth of the Shire. Maponda was away from the village on a trading expedition, but his mother, who was at home, informed the party that Dr. Livingstone had passed through there, and that some of the party subsequently returned. The mother of the chief further produced a prayer book, containing the name of one of the doctor's followers who had been left behind on account of lameness. The Johanna men had represented this boy, who was named Walkatanee, as having deserted. It appears that at this time the boy was absent with the chief, so that the exploring party had no opportunity of a personal interview with him. The evidence which had been obtained at so many different points and from such a number of witnesses, satisfied Mr. Young that the object they had in view had been obtained and, acting upon the instructions issued to them, they resolved to return. There appeared not the slightest reason to doubt the substantial correctness of the information they had obtained, that Dr. Livingstone had passed through the most dangerous portion of his journey and had made good his advance into the interior, with the apparent intention of descending the Nile into Egypt. They accordingly descended the Shire, and in due time met with the Petrel and returned to Simon's Town. Mr. Young and Captain Faulkner return to England by this steamer and we are certain will there meet with a reception which the nature of their report and their enterprise and courage entitle them to.

Mr. Burlingame's Mission in Behalf of the Chinese Empire

The State Department has received the following letter from Mr. Burlingame:

SHANGHAI, Dec. 11, 1867.

SIR: You will have learned from my telegram from Pekin of my appointment by the Chinese Government as Envoy to the Treaty Powers, and of my acceptance of the same. The facts in relation to the appointment are as follows: I was on the Lespy, proceeding to the treaty ports of China to ascertain what changes our citizens desire to have made in the treaties, provided a revision should be determined upon, after which it was my intention to resign and go home. The knowledge of this coming to the Chinese, Prince Kung gave a farewell dinner, at which great regret was expressed at my resolution to leave China and urgent requests made that I would, like Sir Frederick Bruce, state China's difficulties and urge the Treaty Powers of their sincere desire to be friendly and progressive. This I cheerfully promised to do. During the conversation Wensiung, a leading man of the Empire, said: "Why will you not represent us officially?" I repulsed the suggestion playfully and the conversation passed to other topics. Subsequently I was informed that the Chinese were most desirous, and a request was made through Mr. Brown, Chinese Secretary to the British Legation, that I should delay my departure for a few days, and a proposition could be submitted to me. I had no further conversation with them until the proposition was made in form, requesting me to act for them as Ambassador to all the Treaty Powers. I had in the interim thought anxiously upon the subject and after consultation with my friends determined in the interests of country and our civilization to accept. The moment the position was formally tendered I informed my colleagues of all the facts, and I am happy to say that they approved of the action of the Chinese and did all they could to forward the interests of the mission.

J. McLeary Brown, late Chinese Secretary of the British Legation, was persuaded in the common interest to act as First Secretary to the Mission and Mr. Deschamps a French gentleman who had accompanied Ping [illegible] to Europe was selected as Second Secretary. Two Chinese gentlemen of the highest rank were selected from the Foreign Office to [illegible] the Chinese correspondence [illegible].

My suite will number about thirty persons. I shall leave for the United States by the return steamer for California.

I limit myself in this letter to the above brief history of the Mission, reserving my reasons for accepting to a personal interview at Washington.

I may be permitted to add that when the oldest nation in the world, containing one third of the human race, seeks for the first time to come into relations with the West and requests the youngest nation, through its representative, to act as a medium [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Ratification Meeting.

The Union men of this city are justly proud of the candidates just presented by the Union State Convention, for their suffrages in the approaching election, and they propose to ratify the nominations by a public meeting at Oro Fino Hall, on Friday evening. By telegram from Salem, we learn that Messrs. J. H. Mitchell, A. C. Gibbs, A. B. Meacham and others will be here to address the meeting. It is probable, also, that Mr. Logan will be here, though we have no positive information. Let the Union men of Portland and vicinity turn out and give their standard bearers such a greeting as shall nerve them to win another glorious victory over the allies of secession, and send the snakes to their holes again. We have a ticket which for ability, integrity of individual character and sound loyalty, is unimpeachable, and in all these respects, immeasurably the superiors of their respective opponents. Our candidates are men for whom all Union men may be proud to speak, to work and to vote. They deserve to win; they can be and will be elected. Union men, attend the ratification meeting, and then go to work to do again your whole duty to the State and to your country.

Many of the white men at the South who lately engaged in an attempt to take themselves and their States out of the Union, and failed [illegible], are now seriously thinking of asking Congress to expatriate the black people. In [illegible] years these whites maintained most stoutly that black people were absolutely indispensable to the Southern States; that white people were physically incapacitated for labor in those regions; and consequently, complete depopulation must ensue but for the presence of the blacks. As a matter of fact the blacks did about all the work that was done, and the whites pocketed nearly all the gains. We see, however, a hopeful sign in this desire to have the blacks sent off. It implies that the whites have discovered the fallacy of supposing there are climatic hindrances to their working, and are inclined to try their hands at it. This is exactly what is needed to restore the Southern States to prosperity, and the whites cannot too soon carry the hopeful intention into effect. That is within their own competency. The removal of the blacks is another matter. As they are now freemen their consent will have to be obtained, unless the Southern people are prepared to [illegible] in Congress a lawful authority more arbitrary than has ever been claimed by the most [illegible] radicals. When your conservatives [illegible] particular thing done they can find a warrant for it in the Constitution, without the slightest difficulty.

INVENTIVE ENTERPRISE.—But few persons have adequate idea of the inventive enterprise of the American people. The late report of the [illegible] of the Interior discloses the fact that during the year ending September 30, 1867, there were sixteen thousand five hundred and forty-seven (16,547) applications for patents. These applications were disposed of as follows: Eleven thousand six hundred and fifty-five (11,655) [illegible] (including reissues and designs) were [illegible]; one thousand two hundred and twenty-four (1,224) applications were allowed, but patents were not issued thereon, by reason of the non-payment of the final fees; three thousand four hundred and eighty-six (3,486) caveats were filed; ninety-six (96) application for extension were received, and eighty-two (82) extensions of patents were granted.

It will be pleasant to tax-payers to learn that the Patent Office, the bureau which regulates and [illegible] the inventive spirit of the land, is self-sustaining. During the same year the receipts of this office were $611,910 61, and the expenditures $653,600 98, leaving a balance of $58,-[illegible], which added to $228,297 26, the balance on hand September 30, 1866, makes the amount now in the treasury to the credit of the patent fund $286,607 89.

DINNA YE HEAR THE SLOGAN?—Yesterday, the telegraph sounded a note from Salem which set the copperhead fraternity to quaking with alarm. "David Logan is nominated for Congress," was the brief message which sent Copperhead confidence down to zero. Their affected jubilations at the prospect of success, with Jo. Smith, stopped [illegible] and with as discordant a twang as the snapping of a fiddle string in the middle of a hurdy-gurdy dance. Poor Copperheads, Dinna ye hear this Logan?

UNAVOIDABLE POSTPONEMENT.—It was at first the intention to hold the Union ratification meeting this evening; but upon applying for the use of Oro Fino Hall—the only suitable building near the central part of the city—it was found to be [illegible] engaged for Prof. Cardinell's ball, and could not be had till to-morrow evening. As a big crowd is expected on the occasion of ratifying, it was thought best to postpone the meeting till Friday evening.

The House of Representatives at Washington has [illegible] to express sympathy with the Irish in the movement they are making against the power of Great Britain. The London journals are indignant at this action, and profess to regard it as monstrous and unprecedented. The British Government went much further when it accorded belligerent rights to the Confederates. It is now reaping only what it sowed, and ought not to complain of the quality of the crop.

Awhile ago the Democrats confined their appeals to passion and prejudice mainly to those who hate black people because they are black. Recently they broke out in another direction. The "bond barons" and "moneyed aristocrats" are held up to public odium. It will soon be difficult to decide which is most offensive to the Democrats, a black man or a rich white one.

The only public library in Alaska consists of about 1,500 volumes, with Government records, maps and manuscripts. The only American volume is a copy of Wendell Phillips' speeches. The other volumes are printed in Russian, with a sprinkling of the Swedish, German and French.

President Johnson has sent his son Robert to an insane asylum, to be cured of periodical fits of drunkenness, which amount to insanity. We know from which side of the house he inherits that peculiarity.

Propositions have been made in the California Legislature to erect a monument to General Wright, and purchase a statue of General Edward D. Baker.

Railway iron is shipped from Pennsylvania to the Rocky Mountains, without change of cars, for the Pacific Railroad.

Miss Anna Clara Jagerisky accomplished her feat of skating thirty hours, in Detroit, winning her $150.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 24.

The Impeachment Proceedings

CHICAGO, March 24.—The Senate yesterday refused to grant the request of the President's counsel for an extension of thirty days by a strict party vote of 12 to 41.

Evarts then amended the motion, asking the Senate to grant a reasonable time.

Johnson moved that ten days be granted, pending which the Senate adjourned to Tuesday.

Specials express the belief that a delay till next Monday will be granted.

Bingham introduced, on the part of the managers, their replication to the President's answer. It was already prepared.

NEW YORK, March 24.—A Herald's special says a portion of the managers agreed last night to a general replication, viz: that Andrew Johnson is guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors in the manner and form as charged against him as aforesaid, anything in his answer to the contrary notwithstanding, and the House of Representatives is ready to make the charges good when the Senate is ready to hear them.

From the West Indies and South America

HAVANA, March 23.—Two Gendarmes will be shot to-day for desertion and robbery.

Violent shocks of an earthquake were felt at Porto Rico on the 10th and 17th of March, and many buildings were badly damaged, and ships carried ashore.

It is reported here that an American ship had arrived at St. Thomas, with $600,000 to pay for the lease of the Bay of Samana. This does not rest on good authority.

A delegation of Dominicans have gone to Curacoa to bring President Baez to the Capital.

Advices from Venezuela represent that the revolutionists continued their operations but had been badly defeated in two battles.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The news from Rio Janeiro says Gen. Caxias has had a conference with the Admiral, the result of which has been a plan for a simultaneous attack by the land and water forces on Humaitan. It is estimated that nine iron-clads, and 10,000 troops on land will serve to make the attack.

The cholera prevails in the army, but is vanishing, at Buenos Ayres.

A serious outbreak occurred at Montevideo, in the interest of Gen. Flores, who is up for President. It was terminated by intervention of the Foreign Ministers and Admirals.

A party of Blancos invaded Uruguay from Entre Rios, but were repulsed.

Southern News.

ATLANTA, March 24.—Letters have been received from Governor Jenkins counselling non-action on the part of the people.

WILMINGTON, March 24.—The Radicals claim that the Constitution of North Carolina will be ratified, but the Conservatives are actively at work and confident they will be able to defeat it.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

BERLIN, March 23.—The second session of the Parliament of the North German Confederation commenced to-day. King William opened the session in person with a speech from the throne. He promised that his Government would introduce several new measures to strengthen the union at home and abroad. While enumerating the various treaties which had been made with foreign powers, he particularly alluded to the important one just concluded with the United States, which he said was designed to define and regulate the nationality and consequent national obligations of emigrants from Germany and America. This treaty would destroy all dissension between the two countries and unite more closely two nations already allied by strong bonds of commerce and race. The King concluded his speech by expressing with marked emphasis his confidence in the permanence of peace, which he was glad to say now prevailed among the nations of Europe.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

From Salem---The Union State Convention.

SALEM, March 24.—The Union State Convention have made the following nominations: David Logan, nominated for Congress on the second ballot. The nominee came forward and accepted. For Presidential Electors, O. Jacobs, Wilson Bowlby and A. B. Meacham; for Judge of the Second District, John Kelsay; for the Fourth District, W. W. Upton; for District Attorney for the Second District, D. M. Risdon; for the Third District, J. C. Powell; Fourth District, A. C. Gibbs; for Fifth District, C. M. Foster. The Convention instructed for U. S. Grant for President. Convention adjourned.

Union Platform.

SALEM, March 25, 1868.

1. Resolved, That it is the highest duty of every American citizen to maintain against all their enemies the integrity of the Union and the paramount authority of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and to preserve at the ballot-box the fruits of the late war.

2. Resolved, That the work of reconstruction of the Southern States belongs to the legislative department of the government and that we endorse the thirteenth and fourteenth amendments to the Constitution and the acts of Congress commonly called the reconstruction acts, as the best plan yet proposed for the restoration of the States lately in rebellion to their former relations to the Federal Government.

3. Resolved, That we are in favor of admitting the rebel States to representation in Congress at the earliest practicable moment which the public safety will permit.

4. Resolved, That the national debt was necessarily contracted to save the national life and ought to be honestly paid, and we condemn every scheme devised for the repudiation of the whole or any part of the debt as disgraceful to the Republic and unjust to its citizens, and that the proposition to pay in legal tender notes those debts contracted to be paid in specie, is only a milder term for repudiation.

5. Resolved, That, under the Constitution, the Federal Government has no right to interfere with the elective franchise in any State having representation in Congress and where civil government is not overthrown by rebellion.

6. Resolved, That the right of expatriation is the natural and inherent right of all people and indispensable to the enjoyment of the rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that while the citizen owes allegiance to the Government, the Government owes protection to the citizen, and that it is the duty of the Government of the United States to protect all its citizens, native born and naturalized, in the full enjoyment of their rights as citizens of the United States, wherever and under whatever color or pretence those rights may be invaded.

7. Resolved, That the foreign immigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development of resources, and increase of power of this nation, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy; and that we sympathize with all people everywhere who are struggling for civil and religious liberty.

8. Resolved, That the thanks of the American people are due to the soldiers and sailors of the army and navy who have perilled their lives in defense of their country and in vindication of the honor of its flag; that the nation owes to them some permanent recognition of their patriotism and their valor, and ample and permanent provision for those of their survivors who have received disabling and honorable wounds in the service of their country; and that the memories of those who have fallen in its defense shall be held in grateful and everlasting remembrance.

9. Resolved, That we are in favor of liberal appropriations of land and money, by the Government, to aid in the construction of railroads.

Bismarck.

The Rev. Dr. Bellows, whose letters from Germany to the Liberal Christian form a prominent feature of that journal, furnishes, in a recent number, a graphic sketch of the scene at the dissolution of the Prussian Parliament, and what Bismarck did, how Bismarck looked, and what Bismarck wore on the occasion. "He was dressed," says the Doctor, "in the same white uniform I had seen him in at the Emperor's ball at Paris. He wore jack-boots and spurs. His fine, great head upon his tall, full figure gave him a marked superiority over the whole assembly. Power, prudence, self-possession, capacity, success, are stamped upon his features and bearing. If he is worn with care, he does not show it; perhaps he carries it in those great sacks that hang under his eyes! He seems about fifty-four, and thoroughly well-preserved. His habits are careful. He rides on horseback, and bathes in summer in the open river, a few miles from town. He seems to possess much of the attainments of John Quincy Adams, with a tact in statesmanship which ever marked that powerful politician. If he had fallen from the skies he could not have come more opportunely, or with qualifications more out of the usual line of German statesmanship. Knowing all that German statesmen ever knew, he has a thoroughly un-German dash and practical quality in him which marks him out from his predecessors, and leaves him wholly alone in his kind. With unsurpassed courage and competency, he possesses distinguished prudence and self-control. He does not undertake the impossible, nor invent a policy. He merely shapes and articulates a public sentiment which for a hundred years has waited for its crystallizing moment. He is not a moral genius, nor are disinterestedness and pure philanthropy his inspirers. But he is a patriot, and sees Prussia's opportunity to lead Germany to her destiny, and probably no man could possess qualities or antecedents better fitted to the work. An aristocrat, he puts himself at the head of the party of movement, and advocates all possible reforms in the interests of a large liberty and a free life. He swallows and digests his antecedents, and evidently despises all criticism which merely convicts him of disagreement with himself where the disagreement is necessary and born of new circumstances and new opportunities. He is clearly a whole head and shoulders above not only his contemporaries in Prussia, but European statesmen in general, and the more I see of the slack, tape-tied, broken spirited character of German politics—dreamy, mechanical, wordy, theoretical, and inefficient—the more I admire the prompt, incisive, practical, and bold qualities of this reformer of Germany."

Out West, instead of asking a man "What will you drink?" they now say "Nominate your poison."

In proportion to its population, Providence, R. I., is said to be the wealthiest city in the United States.

The Salem papers of Tuesday have full accounts of the immense meeting at the Grant Wigwam, Monday evening, to hear speeches from Hon. David Logan, P. C. Sullivan, Esq., and Gen. E. L. Applegate. The Record says:

At 7 o'clock, the largest audience ever gathered under one roof in this city, was assembled in the "Wigwam," which was crowded, the seats being all full, and hundreds standing in the broad aisle. The building was very well lighted by a great number of side lamps and three chandeliers, which lit up the faces of at least three hundred ladies, who occupied a great proportion of the seats on the north side of the house. A fine piece of music from the Aurora Band opened the exercises, when Mr. Logan was introduced. He spoke at length on political topics, making some happy hits on the negro equality question. He reviewed reconstruction and the payment of bonds, and was much applauded.

Mr. Sullivan followed, in an able effort, that made a first rate impression on all who had not heard him previously. Sullivan is deservedly a favorite with a Salem audience, and was well received.

E. L. Applegate was loudly called for, and it being already late, he announced, in most graphic language, that there was not time for him to make the speech he intended, but on to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, he would be there, and, with his usual felicity of language, he gave an inventory of the points he intended to make on that occasion.

TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The old high-priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been played out by a fair working trial made by Mr. H. Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature:

MR. H. W. SHIPLEY—Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like you Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one over-shot and three Leffel wheels—10, 13 and 15 inch diameters. When I substituted your 15-inch wheel for the 15 inch Leffel wheel, though unfinished, it worked the machinery like a top, using 52 ft of water per minute more than the 13 inch Leffel. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffel; but it gave no better power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water, per minute. After some months, I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance: while running the circular saw in a log which squared 15 inches, I added the planer with a 9-inch knife, cutting from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch depth, without in the least checking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels, I am satisfied that your wheel with gates one-eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffel with gates one-third open. At half gate, your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. A full gate, the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel, by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate, the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being sick at the first, and absent from the State, at the second trial.

DIVIDEND, JAN'Y 1, 1868,

FORTY PER CENT UPON ALL POLICIES THAT have been in force four years, and payable on the anniversaries of the renewals of said policies.

This Company in declaring its Dividends, do so UPON THE PERCENTAGE SYSTEM, thus each insured, WHETHER HE IS A RICH MAN OR A POOR MAN, A PROMINENT CITIZEN OR AN HUMBLE CITIZEN, SHARES ALIKE.

PREMIUM SYSTEM.

CASH, WHEN REQUIRED. NOTES ARE, HOWEVER, TAKEN to accommodate the Insurer in paying his Premiums, thus showing the confidence of the Company in its ability to declare Dividends that will eventually CANCEL THE NOTES.

How different this is from a Cash Company who exact all Cash, under the plea that it is unsafe to grant this indulgence to a policy-holder, when he is unable to pay his renewal premium.

REMEMBER

That the "OLD MANHATTAN" never assumes or promises Extravagant Dividends to induce Insurers to come and insure with them. Their Dividends in the past have always been equal to all well managed and first-class Companies, and they can offer the records of the past as an evidence of the future. It never vilifies the character of other Companies to accumulate business. THE MANHATTAN'S oldest insurers are its best advocates. The business of the Company is conducted with

ECONOMY!

This is an evidence of careful management and a promise of Large Dividends in future.

From the following table, taken from the New York Insurance Reports of 1867, it will be seen that our percentage of expenses to receipts are very much less than any Companies enumerated below:

Money Market.

BUSINESS AT UMATILLA.—We clip the following from the Press of the 21st inst:

Every species of merchandise is firm in price and freely in demand. Our merchants are busily engaged in replenishing their stocks and purchasers can now procure goods cheaper [illegible] this market. Freight [illegible] in earnest and from present indications will be very brisk the [illegible] season. Present rates are as follows: [illegible] 1½ to 15 cents; Idaho [illegible] [illegible] ville and Centerville 10c; Boise City [illegible] and Auburn 4½c; Union and La Grande 3a 1½c. All payable in gold bars, legal tenders or gold dust at coin value. Transportation by teams is a trifle lower. As there are ample means of transportation, freighters expect that there should be no serious arrivals of merchandise increase. During the past week quite a number of heavily laden teams have departed hence for various destinations in the mining regions. The steamers continue to deposit heavy consignments of freight at our landing—an extra steamer arriving yesterday to meet the demands of the heavy shipments—large pack trains are coming and going, horse [illegible] teamsters are busy with arrangements for the summer transportation, the town is beginning to look lively with the large number of travelers in transitu, and everything indicates that the season is opening and better still that it bids fair to be a busy and profitable one for the citizens of Umatilla.

PROSPECTUS FOR A NEW PAPER.—Messrs. W. Baker and Geo. Coggan & Co. of La Grande, Union county, have issued a prospectus for a new paper to be called the Blue Mountain Times, the first issue of which will probably appear on the 10th of April. In their prospectus the publishers say:

"Believing it to be for the interest socially, financially and politically of our entire valley that the publishers have made the necessary arrangements to publish a newspaper under the above name at La Grande, Union county, Oregon, commencing on or about the first of April next.

"It will be the endeavor of the Times to disseminate correct information regarding the resources of our valley, as well as reliable intelligence from the rich and extensive mines in our vicinity.

"It is the intention to make the Times a welcome visitor at every fireside, to interest not only the farmer, the miner, the merchant, the mechanic, the laborer, but the stranger passing through or sojourning for a time in our [illegible] valley.

"In [illegible], the Times will endeavor to assist in the success and supremacy of the principles enunciated by the [illegible] President Lincoln, and now maintained by the Republican Union party."

The [illegible] may be made a very useful journal for East [illegible] Oregon, and we shall hail its advent with the wish that it may succeed financially.

WEST CENTRAL RAILROAD—WEST SIDE.—Mr. W. T. Newby, one of the Directors of the West Side Central Railroad Company, now here soliciting an additional subscription of $25,000 to the capital stock, gives information that the survey of the mountain pass south of this city, makes it necessary to call for this new subscription, in order to defray the expenses of another survey between here and [illegible], that this survey will be begun on the 1st of April; that the grading for the road will be commenced at this city about the last of April, that the amount of stock, guarantees, and donations heretofore secured, amount in the aggregate, to $650,000. Of course a considerable part of all this will become available, under the terms of agreements between the parties, only when certain specified work shall be completed. It is, therefore, necessary to procure some additional aid to set things in motion. Some part of the $25,000 has been taken in this city and no doubt is felt that the whole sum will be secured.

THE SALEM DAILIES.—We have had one growl at the Salem daily papers—because of receiving them irregularly, and rarely ever till the next day after date of publication. [illegible] we are not disposed to be more than vexed about it; but just now when there are events of great interest transpiring at the Capital, accounts of which we cannot well get from any other source, we are mad—mad. If the papers are mailed to us in time for the stage, then the postoffice at Salem is most certainly a [illegible] institution. If the papers are not mailed so as to take the stage on the day of publication, we have a proposition to make to the parties interested. We will stop our part of the exchange and you may stop yours, and we will see which can hold out the longer on that [illegible]. We presume this is definite enough. We send the OREGONIAN every day, and you get it on the day of publication, and if you can't or won't do the same by us we will try to get along without an exchange.

INCORPORATION OF A DITCH COMPANY.—Articles of incorporation have been prepared, and signed by most of the persons intending to become corporators, and will be filed in the course of two or three days at Salem and in this county, for a company whose purpose is to bring water into this city from the Tualatin river. When all [illegible], the corporators will be Messrs. J. S. Smith, [illegible] C. M. Carter, J. M. Strowbridge and H. C. [illegible]. The capital stock is fixed at $1,000,000, [illegible] of $100 each. The company intend [illegible] water from the Tualatin river by [illegible] the Oswego Lake, thence by canal, aqueducts, to this city, to be used for water powers [illegible] machinery, and all other purposes, public and [illegible] for which it may be required. The enterprise is [illegible], but there can be little doubt but that it will [illegible] be accomplished and become remunerative to [illegible].

MR. STINSON'S LECTURE.—On Saturday evening, next, Mr. J. M. Stinson will deliver a lecture at Oro Fino Hall, on the subject of "The Downfall of Our Republic." In this lecture Mr. Stinson will consider the simple elements of governments in general; the blending of these [illegible] in certain forms of government; elements of [illegible], especially, in Great Britain, and their [illegible] of operation, the elements of government in the United States, the difficulties of our system; points of dangers threatening, and the probable downfall of the Republic. The lecture will begin at half-past [illegible] o'clock; admission fifty cents. Tickets may be had at Bardell's music store, Barrett's, McCormick's, [illegible] Harris & Holman's. Mr. Stinson is a gentleman of [illegible] reading, and though his views may be [illegible] than those of most people, he will no doubt be able to present some very interesting matter for [illegible].

TAX PAYERS.—Mr Frazer, Assessor of Internal Revenue, has furnished us the following statement of the number of persons in the District of Oregon, who paid taxes on incomes, in the year 1867, for the year 1866,

|---|---|
| paying $20 or less, | 370 |
| " over $20 and not over $50, | 393 |
| " " $50 and not over $100 | 236 |
| " " $100 and not over $500 | 186 |
| " " $500 | 24 |
| Total | 1,189 |

THE TELEGRAPH.—Mr Haines, the superintendent of the construction of the Dalles telegraph line, informs us that he has already in progress contracts for [illegible] the poles, and that he will probably be able to [illegible] them in a day or two. The line will go from here [illegible] to [illegible] Rock and thence to the Cascades. At that place it will cross the river in order to furnish an office [illegible], and then re-cross to this side, and follow this bank to the Dalles. Mr. Haines expects that he can [illegible] the line in two months.

SHIPMENT OF FLOUR AND WHEAT.—It will be noticed that the freight taken by the Ajax was nearly all of what may be called heavy. The aggregate weight [illegible] probably, 1,200 short tons! The shipment of 24,870 quarter sacks, is the largest ever made [illegible] so far as we remember. It is also a notable fact that of late, the shipments of wheat are [illegible]. It is only lately that any considerable [illegible] have been exported from this State in any di[illegible].

[illegible].—The following were the arrivals of produce [illegible] [Per Wenat, 1,072 qr sks flour. Per Senator, [illegible] apples, 189 gunnies bacon, 18 hlf bbls lard, 7 [illegible] bales woolen goods, 20 boxes eggs, 111 hlf bbls [illegible], 1 bale furs, 52 sks hardings, 40 qr sks flour [illegible]. Per Alert, 153 bags wheat, 51 cases [illegible] do., 98 boxes apples, 2 dressed hogs, 1 [illegible], 1 coop fowls, 1 box eggs. Per Ranger, from [illegible] Tuesday night 109 bales hay.

[illegible] FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The following is a list of the [illegible] and other freights taken by the steamship Ajax, for San Francisco: 24,870 qr sks flour, 4,608 boxes apples, 38 bbls beef and pork, 38 kgs lard, 72 cases bacon, [illegible] cases [illegible], 152 hlf bbls dried fruit, 65 pkgs eggs, [illegible] potatoes, 317 gunnies wheat, 2,297 sks wheat, [illegible] onions, 5 hlf bbls salmon, 1 case butter, 71 [illegible].

INJURED BY FALLING.—Yesterday, Mr. William [illegible], one of the workmen in Mr. J. H. Congle's Saddlery establishment fell accidentally down a stairway, by which one of his wrists was broken. Some further [illegible] were sustained, but not of a serious character. The broken limb was attended to by Dr. Chapman.

THE CITY COUNCIL.—There was no quorum of Council [illegible] at the Chamber last evening and consequently no business was transacted. His Honor the Mayor and [illegible] Fechheimer and Rosenheim, appeared. No others coming in the Mayor declared the Council adjourned to the next regular evening of meeting.

CIRCUIT COURT—IN VACATION.—Yesterday, in the County Court, the Clerk entered judgment by default [illegible] the defendant, against Thomas Kearney and in favor of John M. Breck, for the sum of $93 50, action on account for goods and merchandise.

REVIVAL.—We learn that a revival of religion is in progress at Sauvies Island, under the ministration of Rev. Mr. Mayfield of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Quite a number of conversions have taken place, and the work is still going on.

LADIES' FAIR.—The Fair given by the ladies for the benefit of Nonpareil Lodge I. O. G. T. was largely attended last evening. It will be continued this evening [illegible] Monastes' building. To-day lunch will be served from 12 M. to 2 P. M.

INFORMATION SOUGHT.—We have received a letter from T. M. Lefler, Sedalia, Missouri, making inquiries as to the whereabouts of Finn B. [illegible]. Any one knowing anything of him will confer a favor by writing to the above address.

SOIREE.—The Complimentary Soiree to Prof. Cardinell comes off this evening at Oro Fino Hall.

THE ALMOTA.—The [illegible] went down the river [illegible] day in tow of the steamer [illegible].

Three thousand letters, directed to bogus lottery [illegible], were recently sent from Lowell, Mass., to the Dead Letter Office.

NEW GOODS—MERCHANT TAILORING.—Isaac Barman, of the firm of Barman Bros., is en route for home by the steamship Continental. He is bringing with him a large stock of cloths and furnishing goods which will be [illegible]. He is also bringing with him a [illegible] first [illegible].

Paris is a pleasant city for every [illegible] editors. Seventeen enterprising journalists having published [illegible] of a debate in the legislature on the new [illegible] bill which was not that furnished [illegible] by the official stenographer [illegible] were arrested on New Year's Day. They were tried for violating the constitution of Louis Napoleon as [illegible] as an American Democrat, and after a tedious examination [illegible] guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of a thousand francs and to be imprisoned from six months and bear the cost of the legal proceedings. This last seems a refinement of cruelty as they certainly did not ask to be tried.

The Vigilance Committee at Cheyenne hung three desperadoes to telegraph poles before church time on Sunday morning.

A marble bust of President Lincoln is to be placed in the rotunda of the State House at Columbus, Ohio.

Friction matches were unknown previous to 1832.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water. Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels.
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. ## The Bells of Shandon.

With deep affection and recollection
I often think of those Shandon bells,
Whose songs so wild would in days of childhood,
Fling round my cradle their magic spells
On this I ponder, where'er I wander,
And thus grow fonder, sweet Cork, of thee
With thy bells of Shandon,
That sound so grand on
The pleasant waters of the river Lee

I've heard bells chiming full many a clime in
Tolling sublime in cathedral shrine,
While at a glib rate brass tongues would vibrate,
But all their music spoke naught like thine,
For memory dwelling on each proud swelling
Of thy belfry knelling its bold notes free,
Made the bells of Shandon
Sound far more grand on
The pleasant waters of the river Lee

I've heard bells tolling "Old Adrian's Mole" in,
Their thunder rolling from the Vatican,
And cymbals glorious swinging uproarious
In the gorgeous turrets of Notre Dame,
But thy sounds were sweeter than the dome of Peter
Flings o'er the Tiber, pealing solemnly,
Oh! the bells of Shandon
Sound far more grand on
The pleasant waters of the river Lee

There's a bell in Moscow while on tower and Kiosk
In St Sophia the Turkman gets,
And loud in air call men to prayer
From the tapering summit of tall minarets,
Such empty phantom I freely grant them,
But there's an anthem more dear to me,
'Tis the bells of Shandon
That sound so grand on
The pleasant waters of the river Lee

The Man on the Iceberg.

"It is a man," said the captain, handing his telescope to the mate, after taking a long, steady look; "and he seems frozen fast to the side of the iceberg."

"Keep her away," cried the skipper "So—o, steady!" and by thus altering her course we brought the iceberg right ahead.

The iceberg had been in sight since the weather cleared at midnight, when it looked like some high rocky headland, except that by watching the bright stars behind it, we could see its gigantic outline swaying solemnly and majestically up and down. There was something sublimely grand in the slow, stately movement of such a mass There it floated, large enough, had it been land, to have been the dwelling place of hundreds of human beings. The lower part was of so dark a purple as to look almost black, but higher up it shaded off to a bright azure, then to a light pale green, while on its lofty summit were long, slender spires and pinnacles, and pieces of thin transparent ice, worked into all manner of fantastic forms, and either of a crystal whiteness or tinted with a beautiful pale pink. There were bays and promontories, caves and grottos, hills and dells, with every variety of light and shade The island was almost equally divided by a great valley running through its center. This was half filled with snow, which, thawing slowly in the sun, formed the source of a waterfall, at a height so great that it was blown and scattered into fine rain before it reached the sea. Around its base—on which the sea was breaking with a noise less booming and more muffled than when it dashes on the solid shore—was a broad band of frozen spray, which, glittering in the sunshine, looked like the silver setting of an enormous sapphire.

Not far from the top, and on the side nearest to us, was a vast, smooth, glassy plane, inclining gently toward the sea, and terminating abruptly in a tremendous overhanging precipice. In the very center of this plane, those among us who had good eyes could see a small black spot It was at this the captain had been peering through his glass when he said, "It's a man!"

Every glass in the ship was in requisition, and every eye strained toward one point. The excitement became almost frantic, when one of the watchers suddenly exclaimed that he saw a man move his hand.

We approached; so near at last that the platform above, and its dread object, were at last hidden from view by the brink of the precipice itself, which seemed as if about to roll over and crush us. We sailed along its side, frequently lying to, to explore each nook and corner as we passed. The farther end of the island, when we rounded it, presented quite a new feature, the base was washed away and undermined for about half a mile by a succession of low cavernous hollows, extending inwards farther than we could see, while the sea, rushing in and out tumultuously, made the pent-up air within howl and whistle like a hurricane. Altering our course again, we steered almost due west under the southern side, where its vast shadow spread out far wide over the sea.

It now looked even grander, darker, more fear-inspiring than before, with the sun beaming over its rugged crest, or shining through the thinner parts, and showing all the prismatic colors of the rainbow. The form of the ice-island was that of an irregular triangle, and in about five hours we had sailed completely round it. But there was no single point at which any boat could have landed, even had it been a dead calm and the sea as still as a mill pond, much less in such a heavy surf as was the foaming and creaming all around it. No sign of a living thing was seen, excepting one great sleepy seal, that had crept into a hole just above water-mark, and lay there as if he were in comfortable quarters. No sign of boat, or spar, or wreck. It was a picture of utter desolation.

We hove to again, at the nearest point from which the man upon the iceberg could be seen He lay upon his back with one arm folded in an easy natural manner under his head, the whole attitude being one of easy repose; indeed, had it not been for the marbly look of his face and hands, we could have fancied that he was sleeping soundly. He was clothed as one of the better class of seamen, in rough blue pilotcloth, with large horn buttons; he had no hat, and by his side lay a small boat hook, to which was tied a strip of red wool stuff, apparently a piece of the same which he wore round his neck. This, no doubt, the poor fellow had intended planting on the hights as a signal. In such a thin, clear atmosphere, with the aid of a powerful telescope, even his features might be plainly traced, and his iron-grey hair seen moving in the wind.

The second mate stoutly declared that he recognized the man—he was quite sure of it—an old chum and shipmate of his, with whom he had sailed many a long voyage, and some part of whose wild, varied history, he told us the next evening. What seemed to convince him more than anything, was the peculiar way in which the dead man's arm was stowed away under his head—his old shipmate always slept so, even in his hammock.

Numerous and strange were the conjectures and remarks made by officers and men Who and what was he? How long had he been there? How did he get there? The general conclusion was that he was one of the crew of some vessel wrecked upon the iceberg itself, of which no vestige remained.

"Yes, like enough," said one of the sailors, "she run into the ice in the dark, and went down like a stone, same as we may have done any time this last six weeks."

"Perhaps he was aloft when she struck, and got pitched up where he is now."

"As like to be pitched into the moon," rejoined another, contemptuously. "Why, that there precipice is three times as high as the tauntest mast ever rigged."

"Perhaps, now," suggested a third, "it's some awful cruel skipper, who's been a hazing and ill-using of his crew till they couldn't bear with it no longer, and was drove to mutiny, and put him ashore there, all alone, to die by himself, so as they should not have his blood upon their hands; or, maybe he was a murderer, or a Yankee slave-keeper."

"Ah, Bill," growled out a previous speaker, "you've always got a good word to say for every one, you have."

It was a very old man who spoke next one who was looked upon too, as a great authority in all such matters, although he was unusually taciturn, and would never enter into an argument He quietly deposited his quid in his hat, and, as this was always done preparatory to his making a speech, his shipmates waited in silence for him to begin.

"That there ice-island," he said at last, "wasn't launched yesterday, nor yet last year nor the year before, perhaps, and by the looks of him, he's been for a pretty long cruise in warm latitudes—last summer, maybe—and then come back home for the winter. If you look away yonder—there just this side of that high point like a church steeple, only lower down, there's a place darker than the rest. Now, it's just there I expect that a great piece has broken off and drifted away; and I calculate 'twas lower and more shelving off—not so steep and rocky like as it is now 'Twas there that poor chap was cast ashore from ship or boat He was trying to make his way up to the heights to take a look round, and hoist a signal, when he lay down and went to sleep, and never woke again only, where he is now, you see, must have been covered with snow then, or he couldn't have kept his footing."

Having said this much, he replaced the quid in his mouth, and said no more.

There was no earthly use in waiting longer and yet the captain seemed loth to give the order to fill and bear away.

"If the poor fellow had a spark of life in him, he would have to [illegible] seven [illegible] make it [illegible] down over the precipice [illegible] on such a slope as that. And if there are any more of them we should have seen them before this time, although we could never get them off if we did."

Then pausing suddenly in his walk on the quarter deck, he gave an order to get a gun ready forward and presently came the answer

"All ready with the gun, sir."

"Fire."

In a few seconds the echo of the loud report resounded from the icy wall; for another instant all was still, and then came a noise like a rattling of loud thunder, proceeding from the center of the berg.

The danger of our proximity to this vast object now became more and more apparent, and all sail was made to get a good offing But we had barely proceeded a quarter of a mile when the same noise was heard again only louder, more prolonged, and accompanied by a rending, crushing sound, the intensity and nature of which is perfectly indescribable. The vast island was parting in the middle, down the course of the deep valley before mentioned and slowly and majestically the eastern half rolled over into the sea upheaving what had been its base, in which were imbedded huge masses of rock covered with long seaweed The other part still remained erect, but was swaying to and fro, as if it also must capsize This convulsion caused less foam and turmoil than might have been supposed, but raised a wave of such tremendous magnitude, that when it reached our ship she seemed about to be overwhelmed by a rolling mountain of water higher than our mast heads The good ship rose upon its crest, and before again sinking into the hollow, we saw the man upon the iceberg—still in the same posture—glide swiftly down the slippery incline—shoot over the edge of the precipice, and plunge into the raging surf.

A sensation of inexpressible relief was experienced by all; it had seemed so dreadful to sail away and leave him there, unburied and alone; now, at any rate, we had seen the last of him

An Old Fool.—John Bennehoff, a small farmer near Oil Creek, Pennsylvania, whose land happened to be in the oil region, has for three years past been in receipt of a monthly income from oil of from $30,000 to $60,000 Being intensely avaricious, and having no faith in banks, he has kept his money in iron safes in his own house, with an armed guard constantly over it The house was half a mile from any other, with a strip of woods between About a month ago, a party of men entered at night fall, overpowered the old man and his guard, tied and gagged them, seized the safe keys, opened the safes, and carried off about $350,000 in greenbacks Even this lesson has done the old man no good He still has a large amount of money hidden in his house, and still parades his guard

AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE

These wheels, unequalled and unrivalled in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories &c, &c

The following is from the Springfield Republic

Trial of Water Wheels.

Messrs Jonathan Child and John A McCreight, who are about establishing mills and factories at Harper's Ferry, Va., wished to procure water wheels, and desiring to make a choice of Springfield Wheels procured a trial between the Leffel Double Turbine and the Welch and Burns Wheel The following report of the Committee shows the result of the trial

SPRINGFIELD, O, Oct 11, 1867

This is to certify that on the 9th and 10th days of October, 1867 I, in company with Mr Staley Civil Engineer of Mechanicsburg, carefully measured the amount of water used in the test between the 30 inch Leffel Turbine and the 30 inch Welch & Burns Water wheels made by Bechtle Blakeney & Baker made at Weimer's mill near West Milton, Miami Co, O The contract requiring the tests to be made with ½ gate and ¾ gates, with the same amount of water for each wheel The amount of grinding was superintended by Mr Charles Morgan who will report the results

The amount of water used in the tests as measured by myself and Mr Staley, is as follows

| | C ft per min |
|---|---|
| At ½ gate the Leffel Wheel used | 88 224 |
| " Welch & Burns used | 88 224 |
| At ¾ gate the Leffel Wheel used | 117 528 |
| Welch & Burns used | 117 528 |

The grinding was continued for one hour each test
WILLIAM BROWN,
Civil Engineer
S S STALEY

Having been chosen by both parties to determine the amount of grain ground by each of the above mentioned wheels, the result was as follows

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| The Leffel Wheel at ½ gate ground | 256 | lbs |
| The Welch & Burns at ½ gate ground | 56½ | lbs |
| The Leffel Wheel at ¾ gate ground | 411½ | lbs |
| The Welch & Burns at ¾ gate ground | 192 | lbs |

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, putting their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patient's letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

Address DR J F GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Medical and Surgical
INSTITUTE.

- CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE
- CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.
- IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may [illegible] my motive, but the desire to point out to those who suffer, languish and decay, the true cause of their affliction, is too great an incentive to be forced into abeyance. How [illegible] tended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, no one but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell; but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms, Weakness of the back and limbs; [illegible] feelings, loss of muscular power, nervousness; [illegible] cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot head; [illegible] of consumption, short breath, flushings of the face; aversion to society; confusion of the mind, loss of [illegible] nightly emissions, colorless; slight discharges upon the least excitement trembling; palpitation of the [illegible] regular appetite, variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the [illegible] symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider. The present is the golden moment in which you may [illegible] health and happiness You may feel strong now, but if you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse even in the SLIGHTEST DEGREE, you have the seeds of weakness in your system, and their undermining influence will, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being. It is not a disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies its greatest danger; for while the patient is being treated for [illegible] affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Digestive functions, he sinks into a general debility that soon adds him to the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, [illegible] Weakness

See in the bent form and languishing steps, the poor victim of the fascinating vice! Mark the course of the destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye!

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms. At first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into a great disinclination to pursue his regular business. The mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights [illegible] days of depression

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery In a single instant it may wither your fond hopes and blast your honest aspirations

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of relief This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system, unprepared for the exigencies of the [illegible] suddenly fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable [illegible] from which there is but the slightest hope of [illegible]. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they are puny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate This is [illegible] ble to both sexes, whether married or single, and to all times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of the terrible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to lead to them, but by instant application secure to yourself the only hope of health and happiness The Doctor uses no mercury or other deleterious drugs—cures, when taken in time, always guaranteed, and full and proper vigor restored

The afflicted are assured of every confidence.

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establishment of the Institute, the number of cases of Venereal that have been treated show a record unsurpassed by any [illegible] in the world, and the success that has invariably [illegible] the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not only uncalled for, but actually dangerous for it is the [illegible] established medical principle that these [illegible] by entering the blood, ruin the constitution and [illegible] life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases, in a few days, and finds no difficulty in curing those of long [illegible] without submitting the patient to such treatment as will draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or oblige him to neglect his business whether in doors or without. The diet need not be changed Cures always guaranteed, or no pay required.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with [illegible] requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry [illegible] be, Where is there a physician competent to [illegible] relief, and whose reputable standing in society will recommend him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial [illegible] but in a thorough manner as every family and patient [illegible] both in hospitals and private families can make him them from the hands of the unqualified [illegible] designing There are families in which [illegible] a father All are afflicted in [illegible] and sympathize with all [illegible] in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be [illegible] consultation by letter or otherwise, free Cures [illegible] teed in all weaknesses and troubles incidental to the sex. Private apartments are provided when desired, where can be had all the advantages of an unremitted attention of the Doctor and the most skillful and and faithful nurses.

To Correspondents.—Persons, either male or female, residing in the interior, are often deterred from consulting the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, nor bear the expense of a visit to the city To such he would say that a plain statement of the symptoms and [illegible] bearing upon the complaint will enable him to prescribe for them so that they can be cured at home None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor and will be treated with the strictest confidence [illegible]
